Easter Season: The fifty days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost are celebrated in joyful exultation as one feast day, or better as one "great Sunday". These above all others are the days for the singing of the Alleluia. The Sundays of this time of year are considered to be Sundays of Easter and are called, after Easter Sunday itself, the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Sundays of Easter. This sacred period of fifty days concludes with Pentecost Sunday. Let us celebrate our Lord of the Resurrection in these Sundays of Easter, with joy and love. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia! Fr Alex

Clergy Thoughts: Theme: DIVINE MERCY. The love and graciousness of God keep us going and the love of God remains the fount of all we do and celebrate as Christians. One of the most profound signs of God's love towards us is His mercy which never comes to an end; always renewed every morning (Lam 3:22). The passion and death of our Lord Jesus Christ on the cross was God's greatest act of mercy towards us. The resurrection of Christ is the one channel for the perpetuation of the presence of this mercy in the world. Through the power of the Resurrection, the Ocean of God's mercy, which knows no bounds or restrictions, continues to flow into the rivers and streams and lakes and ponds of our lives and hearts. May our lives be a daily experience of the power of the mercy of God and the power of the Lord's Resurrection. ALLELUIAH! Amen. Fr Alex
