Clergy Thought:

"When He calls on me, I will answer Him..." Every year we respond to and rise to the challenges of the Lenten Journey. On this first Sunday of us reflecting on and indeed following Our Lord's 40 days in the Wilderness, we recall our own Baptisms and how those waters saved our souls. Those "wild beasts" of modern times surround us but let us remember that God's Angels will look after us, as indeed will Jesus of course, provided we ask them." Let's always pray AMEN. Rev Dcn David Croucher

Thank you. On behalf of the Parish, may I officially express our profound gratitude to Maria Ford and to Mike Grant for their immense service to support the Parish office and the website. I also thank Joseph Deepu for helping out. May I equally welcome Brenda Stogdon and Dr Chris Wright and thank them for accepting to continue the work at the Parish office and the website for us. Fr Alex

Newsletter- information received before noon on Wednesdays will be included in the next weekend's newsletter, (provided there is space available) and/or posted to the Parish Website. Information and notices should be sent to office@holytrinitydiss.com
