Foodbanks in the news

The kids forced to live on margarine butties in foodbank Britain during school holidays.

Thousands of families who rely on free school lunches and breakfasts are turning to foodbanks in the summer to give their children a decent meal.

In a church hall, in Norfolk a seven-year-old girl is clearing her plate. Food-in-the-hole, peas, sweetcorn, trifle. She asks if she can get a second dessert

What did she have to eat for lunch yesterday?

"Margarine sandwich," she says.

"Sometimes we have crisp sandwiches but we didn't have any crisps."

What about tea? "We didn't have anything for tea," she says, matter-of-factly. She is more interested in showing me her wobbly tooth. "We just went to bed." She sighs. "I hate the school holidays."
