Clergy Thought: This Sunday is Pentecost Sunday, and marks the end of the Easter Season. It marks the beginning of the church's missionary endeavour. Pentecost day is a day of renewal and empowerment. As Christ's disciples, every true believer has been empowered by the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the mutual love of the Father and the Son. He empowers us to go into our world to bring peace, unity, joy, love and salvation to everyone. So let us walk with the Holy Spirit, our Counsellor and Advocate. This is because, we shall succeed "not by power nor by might, but by my spirit, says the Lord Almighty" (Zach 4:6). Fr Alex

We keep Deacon Anthony in our prayers and wish him a long, fruitful and happy ministry.

THE NEW LECTIONARY: The Lectionary, which is the book that contains the Scripture Readings for Mass and the Sacraments is changing as part of the continuing process of revising Liturgical Translations. This process began in 2011 with the Roman Missal. The New Lectionary will use both the English Standard Version – Catholic Edition of the Bible and the Abbey Psalter for the Psalms. The changes are intended to make the Biblical Translations more faithful to the original Languages, to reflect current Biblical Scholarship, and to provide a Text for use in Liturgical setting that is more pro-claimable and, where appropriate, more inclusive. The New Lectionary will become mandatory for use in all Catholic Parishes and Mass centres in England and Wales and in Scotland from Advent 2024. CTS was appointed by the local Bishops' Conferences to publish the official ritual editions of the Lectionary for England and Wales, and Scotland. These will be the only editions authorised for use in these countries. Alongside the New Lectionary, CTS is publishing a range of resources, including people's Missals, Abbey Psalter Psalms & Canticles, Liturgical Music – including new settings for psalmody at Mass. The New Sunday Missal costs £19.95. More information can be found on www.ctsbooks.org

Children's Pilgrimage to Walsingham: will take place Tuesday 28th May (during half-term). There will a procession that starts in the village at 10:45am and progresses along the former railway line with pauses for prayers and hymns. Mass will be celebrated at the chapel of Reconciliation at 12 noon (servers from parishes would be welcome). After Mass there will be a picnic before moving to the beach at Wells-next-the-Sea, weather permitting.
