Clergy Thought:

On this 5th Sunday of Lent, we are closer getting to the Paschal Celebration. This is reflected in all the readings of today. Christ is ready to offer everything for our salvation. We must also be willing to offer all for him and others. That is, as we see Christ carrying out his priestly and intercessory role, we are encouraged to press on in faith and life, amid trials, persecution, and even doubts. Also, we learn from His experience that suffering is a necessary end and inevitable in life, and like Christ, we will be made perfect through it. Fr Alex
