

Clergy Thoughts: 4th Week of Lent (Year A)

Theme: Jesus, Our Light and our Shepherd

In this 4th Sunday of Lent called "Laetare (Rejoice)" Sunday, the Universal Church rejoices and exults and for Christ our shepherd illuminates us, and heals our blindness. The Son of Man has come into the world to rescue us from darkness, accompanies us in this life as our Light and Shepherd and leads us to the splendour of the faith. Whoever believes and accepts this illumination into his life is like one whose eyes were opened. This is because, human beings were born blind, in darkness. However, the good news is that Christ liberates and heals our spiritual blindness. Amen! Fr. Alex
