Clergy Thought

Today we celebrate the solemnity of Epiphany, and in a most special way the day of the three kings who brought Jesus the very costly and symbolic gifts of gold, Mire, and frankincense. It celebrates the many ways through which Jesus has revealed himself to us and our world. These include the three events that bring to light his mission and divinity: the visitation of the three kings or Magi, the baptism of Jesus, and the miracle at Cana. Jesus allows himself to illumine the darkness of our lives. The lesson in all of these is that we must also make our lives better and allow the goodness that flows from us help others. Happy Epiphany to you all. Amen. Fr Alex

CHURCH CLEANING: There is a new Rota for cleaning the church building displayed in the Community Room. Please will you put you name against a time that is convenient for you. Thank you to all the volunteers who give their time to keep the church clean for all of us. We are all grateful to you.

Quidenham Parish Hall (Cowshed) is available for hire for Church related events (like the one run recently by Deacon David). Bookings should be made via Margaret Macqueen mairead.maccuinn@gmail.com

Interested in working with children and young people? Recently left school or university and deciding what to do next? In between jobs, or would like to do something 'different'? The Diocesan Youth Service is looking for people aged 18-35 to join the Ignite Team, sharing the Gospel Message with young people. These are full-time positions initially for either 12 months (September intake) or 6 months (January intake), with training, food, accommodation and a monthly allowance provided. For more information see www.rcdea.org.uk/youth

Inviting Applications to *The Sibyl Collective - The East Anglia School of Contemporary Catholic Music This is an exciting new initiative from the Diocesan Youth Service which seeks to bring together young (age 16 – 30) contemporary Catholic musicians from around the Diocese. Under the leadership of Fr. Peter Wygnanski, the aim is to grow as a community committed to discipleship in Christ through prayer and praise & worship music, and then to be able to lead others at events and retreats in the Diocese. For more information and to apply, please see www.rcdea.org.uk/youth

ANIMA CHRISTIE -kindly return the Anima Christie prayers to the Community Room following Mass. Thank you.
